The Everything To Do With Sex Show undergoes a sexy transformation

Toronto, ON (August 11, 2006) -- Before you decide that you've seen and experienced everything to do with sex, give us another shot. We're back again for the 7th year and we're bigger and better than ever; whether you are slightly bashful or you're aching for something to challenge your sexual expertise, the everything to do with sex show will have something for you; showcasing new acts and entertainment for all tastes to enjoy. We've also got a new team putting everything together. Presenting, Allan "the fry guy" Fryman as our show manager; new coordinators Melissa Cappe and Melonie de Guzman and back for the 3rd year, Santo Lupo as our entertainment coordinator.

Attendees are given the opportunity, yet again, to explore their own sexuality through seminars and on-stage entertainment. The proclaimed favourites are back by popular demand, featuring acts like the Canadian Men, still, new and exciting themes will be explored, such as, Toronto's sexiest bartender, male and female, and the sexiest fashion show in Toronto. For the fetish lovers, themed performances on the stage near the Dungeon, featuring acts like Rubberella, the dominatrix and fetish queen and the super sex freak sideshow. For the romantics, seminars will feature demonstrations by famed sexual chef, Robert Catherine, and popular favourites like Mary Taylor and Aren't We Naughty.

Tune in for updates regarding our exhibitor lists, speakers and performers for the weekend. Who knows, maybe you'll surprise yourself.
